INTROIT ps.147:7; antiphon 145:16

You open | your hand *

you satisfy the desire of every | living thing.

Sing to the LORD with thanks - | giving; *

make melody to our God | on the lyre!

He covers the heavens with clouds; he prepares rain | for the earth; *

he makes grass grow | on the hills.

He gives to the | beast their food, *

and to the young ravens | that cry.

His delight is not in the strength | of the horse, *

nor his pleasure in the legs | of a man,

but the LORD takes pleasure in those who | fear him, *

in those who hope in his | steadfast love.

Glory be to the Father...

You open | your hand *

you satisfy the desire of every | living thing.

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at this congregation in the confession and glad confidence that, as he says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but his very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with him and with one another. Our Lord invites to his table those who trust his words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as he forgives and loves us, that they may show forth his death until he comes. Because those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church— Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the sacrament, are asked first to speak with the pastor. For further study, see Matthew 5:23f.; 10:32f.; 18:15-35; 26:26-29; 1 Cor. 34.
