INTROIT Ps. 145:1-2,8,10,21; antiphon: John 16:16

A little while, and you will see me no | longer; *
and again a little while, and you will | see me.
I will extol you, my | God and King, *
and bless your name forever and | ever.
Every day I will | bless you*
and praise your name forever and | ever.
The LORD is gracious and | merciful, *
slow to anger and abounding in | steadfast love.
All you works shall give than to you, | O LORD, *
and all your saints shall | bless you!
My mouth will speak the praise | of the LORD, *
and let all flesh bless his holy name forever and | ever.

Glory be to the Father...

A little while, and you will see me no | longer; *
and again a little while, and you will | see me.

John 1:4

In him was life,
and the life was
the light of men.

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at this congregation in the confession and glad confidence that, as he says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but his very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with him and with one another. Our Lord invites to his table those who trust his words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as he forgives and loves us, that they may show forth his death until he comes. Because those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church— Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the sacrament, are asked first to speak with the pastor. For further study, see Matthew 5:23f.; 10:32f.; 18:15-35; 26:26-29; 1 Cor. 34.
