Introit Ps. 116:1–4, 8; antiphon: Ps. 43:1

Vindicate me, O God, and defend my cause against an ungodly | people,*
from the deceitful and the unjust man de- | liver me!

I love the LORD, because | he has heard*

my voice and my pleas for | mercy.

Because he inclined his | ear to me,*

therefore I will call on him as long | as I live.

The snares of death encompass me; the pangs of Sheol laid | hold on me;*

I suffered distress and | anguish.

Then I called on the name | of the Lord:*

"O LORD, I pray, deliv- | er my soul!"

For you have delivered my | soul from death,*

my eyes from tears, my feet from | stumbling.

Glory be to the Father...

Vindicate me, O God, and defend my cause against an ungodly | people,*
from the deceitful and the unjust man de- | liver me!

2 Corinthians
5:21

For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at this congregation in the confession and glad confidence that, as he says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but his very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with him and with one another. Our Lord invites to his table those who trust his words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as he forgives and loves us, that they may show forth his death until he comes. Because those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church— Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the sacrament, are asked first to speak with the pastor. For further study, see Matthew 5:23f.; 10:32f.; 18:15-35; 26:26-29; 1 Cor. 34.
