INTROIT ps.107:29-32; antipon: Ps.107:28

Then they cried to the LORD in their | trouble, *
and he delivered them from | their distress.

He made the | storm be still, *
and the waves of the | sea were hushed.

Then they were glad that the waters were | quiet, *
and he brought them to their desired | haven.

Let them thank the LORD for his | steadfast love, *
for his wondrous work to the chil- | dren of men!

Let them extol him in the congregation of the | people, *
and praise him in the assembly of the | elders.

Glory be to the Father...

Then they cried to the LORD in their | trouble, *
and he delivered them from | their distress.

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at this congregation in the confession and glad confidence that, as he says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but his very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with him and with one another. invites to his table those who trust his words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as he forgives and loves us, that they may show forth his death until he comes. Because those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church— Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the sacrament, are asked first to speak with the pastor. For further study, see Matthew 5:23f.; 10:32f.; 18:15-35; 26:26-29; 1 Cor. 34.
